

March 27, 2018

I've known Todd and Amanda Carneiro for about seven years. They are very eager to join the WBYC, so they can meet people with the same boating and social interests.

They are also very interested in having their two children get involved in the sailing program.

I feel that they will be a great addition to this wonderful club with their youth and enthusiasm.

Jim Young